

For HKU (EEE & HKU)

Curriculum Development Officer in the HKU e-Learning Development Laboratory, Department of Electrical and Electronic Engineering, the University of Hong Kong (Ref.: 202201-03) (for 1 year from September 2022, with the possibility of renewal).

Applicants should possess (i) Master degree or equivalent; (ii) 5 years of working experience, sound experience in curriculum or course material design related to STEM education.

The appointee will be responsible (i) To support school to develop school-based curriculum and content materials, and produce school-based consultancy for 12-13 primary and secondary schools (each person); (ii) To prepare for course design for school workshops; (iii) To prepare for the themes and activities in the STEM week/day (if any); (iv) To be the person-in-charge for the printed booklet content about the good STEM cases of project schools; (v) To help assistant project managers to prepare the customized consultant report for 12-13 schools (each person).

A competitive salary commensurate with qualifications and experience will be offered, in addition to annual leave and medical benefits. The University places great emphasis on staff development to help staff develop potential, and has in place a variety of development opportunities catered for staff at different stages of career development.

Applicants should send a completed application form together with an up-to-date C.V. to (wtfok@eee.hku.hk). Application forms (341/1111) can be obtained at <http://www.hku.hk/apptunit/form-ext.doc>. Further particulars can be obtained at <http://jobs.hku.hk/>. Review of applications will continue until August 15, 2022. The University thanks applicants for their interest, but advises that only shortlisted candidates will be notified of the application result. The University is an equal opportunity employer